

Submit a document or publication for TANDIS

The ODIHR welcomes reference to documents or publications of relevance to TANDIS.

Please observe that the ODIHR does not have the resources to include all reports from NGOs on TANDIS, reference to practical tools and guides from NGOs to combat intolerance and discrimination will however be very much appreciated and be included on TANDIS where applicable.

NGO reports and documents are made available on TANDIS by the search engine HuriSearch - see more information about how to include your website.

Your submission has been received.

Thank you.

Please use the "Print" button to print/save the page for future reference.
